WHY YOU NEED OUR SERVICES

Recruiting the right staff for your company
is vitally important.

It's a complex and time-consuming task, which is difficult to manage when you have a business to run at the same time.

At Posh Cockney we take away that headache and simplify the selection process for you.

Our team at Posh Cockney has built up a unique network of contacts that allows us to provide our clients with first class applicants. We aim to provide a minimum of 3 top class candidates for every position we are allocated to fill.

Teamwork is essential in Hospitality, without it, it is impossible to create great customer experience. That's why we won't just find a candidate based on their individual skill set, but we will look at your team as a whole and find candidates that we truly believe would be a perfect fit.

We are word of mouth, network strong, relationship focused, and knowledgeable hospitality professionals, looking to provide immense value for our clients and candidates, and change the face of recruitment in our industry.

Our team have over 40 years industry experience, with an ear to the ground, keeping us up to date on everything in the Hospitality world. This experience has led us to gain trusted contacts in all areas, from Events and Nightclubs through to 5* Hotels, Boutique Restaurants and Members Clubs.

Having such an enviable network separates us from every other recruiter. This means we don't place ads on jobs boards. Your candidates come solely from our network.
